

Psalms Bibliography

Carlstrom, Nancy White., and Lori McElrath-Eslick. Does God Know How to Tie Shoes? Grand Rapids, MI: William B. Eerdmans Pub., 2010. Print. As a young girl walks with her parents through the countryside, her questions elicit responses that help her to know God better. Her parents' responses are based on verses from the Psalms.

- , and Arno. Psalms for Young Children. Grand Rapids, MI: Eerdmans for Young Readers, 2008. Print. The Psalms express to God a whole range of emotions -- fear and sadness, joy and wonder, but also desire and regret, repentance and hope. This collection, adapted for young readers, provides a way for children to begin expressing their faith in God.

Kitch, Anne E., and Carolyn Conahan. Bless This Way. Harrisburg, PA: Morehouse Pub., 2003. Print. A collection of prayer-poems for various daily activities, based on excerpts from Psalms in the Bible.

Ladwig, Tim. Psalms Twenty-three. Grand Rapids: Eerdmans for Young Readers, 1997. Print. The text of the familiar psalm comparing God to a loving shepherd accompanies illustrations which shows the world of love and fear faced by an urban African-American family.

Lindbergh, Reeve, and Holly Meade. On Morning Wings: Adapted from Psalm 139. Cambridge, MA: Candlewick, 2002. Print. Retells, in simple words, a psalm of God's knowledge of and love for each of us.

Murphy, Elspeth Campbell., and Jane E. Nelson. David and I Talk to God Series. [Elgin, Ill.]: Chariot. Print. This series of books, published in the early 1980's, set one Psalm per book in the context of a child's life. A good resource if you can find them.

Pinkney, Gloria Jean., Jerry Pinkney, J. Brian Pinkney, and Myles C. Pinkney. Music from Our Lord's Holy Heaven. New York: HarperCollins, 2005. Print. Tapping a wellspring of comfort, inspiration, and renewal, Gloria Jean Pinkney has gathered twenty-two African-American spirituals and reverential songs. She's carefully chosen a psalm for each to illuminate its meaning. Soaring artwork by her husband, Jerry, and their sons, Brian Pinkney and Myles C. Pinkney, graces these pages.

Ricci, Regolo. The Lord Is My Shepherd. Toronto: Tundra, 2007. Print. An illustrated version of the psalm celebrating life and rebirth through cycles and seasons, seen through the eyes of a wondrous array of creatures all playing their parts in nature's intricate plan.

Wilson, Anne. The Lord Is My Shepherd. Grand Rapids, MI: Eerdmans for Young Readers, 2003. Print. An illustrated version of the psalm which celebrates how the Lord meets the needs of God's people.

Wilson, Karma, and Amy June Bates. Give Thanks to the Lord. Grand Rapids, MI: Zonderkidz, 2007. Print. A boy gives thanks to the Lord for all that he has in this illustrated interpretation of Psalm 92.

Wilson, Karma, and Amy June Bates. Let's Make a Joyful Noise. Grand Rapids, MI: Zonderkidz, 2008. Print. A child discovers the fun and sheer joy of praising God in this interpretation of Psalm 100.

Wilson, Karma. I Will Rejoice!: Celebrating Psalm 118. Grand Rapids, MI: Zonderkidz, 2007. Print.
